The Stereotype

Inspectah Deck

2009! Geez

Yeah, this be that old school type shit Yeah, that Blaxploitation shit

Afro picks, Cadillac whips

We gon' hit you like Truck Turner with the burnerI'm the Stereotype in the zone where chrome meet chrome

Hard heads call it, "Home, sweet home"

I rep that hat to the back, chrome blaze

Low fade, blazin' the haze in the hallways Young black nigga 'bout to come back bigger

Rap action figure, that's strapped with the spitter

I serve mankind like a super hero

Gonna move the people with sharp darts to the ear holeAnd terror spin, veteran style, ghetto child Call his name, hear it echo for miles

Check my fouls before you get wild, reconcile

Trust, I touch kids but I'm no paedophile The superfly, I, O'Neal holdin' the steel

With the ounce from the greenhouse bent behind the wheel

What's the deal? Dick riders on board

In this Bloodsport, I'm like Jean Claude, yes LordThis thing is gonna be alright, alright, here comes the Stereotype

It takes time to get it right, that's right, count on the Stereotype

This thing is gonna be alright, alright, here comes the Stereotype

It takes time to get it right, that's right, count on the StereotypeThe Stereotype, this life, I'm knee deep in

The creeps keep creepin', the heat streets sweepin'

The greed keeps feedin', the seeds need teachin'

Police be seekin' all the ones free speechin'Guns be blowin', young g's holdin'

Nerve control 'em, they say that son be zonin'

I'm half Huey, half Malcolm, part Martin

Mixed with Mark Garvey, sharp as SharptonA known fact that I stay pro black

I go back like Kojak or Bobby Womack

Or maybe Jim Brown, been down from Ground Zero

Crowned reknown hero, sound pounds your earlobeMean daddy like a '69 green Caddy

Seen daddy soakin' that fox, she beam badly

With more drama than you find in the flicks

I'm Dolomite without the afro picks or flyin' kicks, it's this, this, this, this This thing is gonna be alright, alright, here comes the Stereotype

This thing is gonna be alright, alright, here comes the Stereotype

It takes time to get it right, that's right, count on the StereotypeMy chain hang loose like I wear my jeans

I got soul like Rakim and Grandma Green's

I represent The Projects, everything hood

Big wolves in the woodwork, everything goodIn the bright lights, Big City, it's ten times gritty Doin' life on the streets, who's biddin' with me?

Regardless, I'mma hold mine down, load my pound

Target on the unknowns who roam my townThere they go on that bullshit, when it go down

You know who the culprit, sure enough

The R E B E L, yell it freely

I call him Stereo T Y P EGreasy on the hunt for the big easy

Switch the game like plantin' cracks on the D.T.

Say what you say, G, hate, don't mistake me

Or play me like a must paid fee, that ain't meThis thing is gonna be alright, alright, here comes the Stereotype It takes time to get it right, that's right, count on the Stereotype
