Empty

Jamillions

If you think you can get to me
My minds a door open
Walk right through
Under raise thats how it has to be
I never said I was anything like you
You bring me down, let me out
You bring me down, let me out

Sit down beside my ignorance
Nobody loves me like you do
Sick and tired of all the hypocrites
Hate me 'cause I'm not like you

You bring me down, let me out
You bring me down, let me out

Make you judge it just a satisfy
I got you different right here
You can see all the pain in my eyes

Overflowing with tears

You bring me down, let me out
You bring me down, let me out

My mind is twiztid with these thoughts of you
I just can't be alone
A constant blister when I talk to you
Wish you would leave me alone

You bring me down, let me out
You bring me down, let me out

Smokin' cigarettes passin' the time
Somehow I'm lonely again
No one knows I'm feelin' deep inside
Maybe if I had a friend

You bring me down, let me out
You bring me down, let me out
