

Say It To My Face

Xzibit

See when the drama pop off
Then pardon me, it ain't my fault
My back was up against the wall
Thanks to y'all
You need to say it to my face
If you got somethin' to say 'bout me
'Cause that's the way it's supposed to be
But you ain't no G
Cuz, you  ain't like me
Sometime men got some more than women
You do too good in Cali, the prey start to turn to venom
You can't walk in these shoes, , you can't fit 'em
I'm 'bout five seconds away from the 'Let's go get him'
So , say it to my face if you're feelin' like King Kong
Misery love company, I guess I'ma leave y'all
Until that day, you wanna tuck them nuts
And try to hit my switches and get your frame  up
You gotta say it to my face, I'm right here with a 12 gauge
You talkin' to a man that plan on dyin' of old age
'Til that day, I crush everythin' in my way
And give a  about what y'all say
See when the drama pop off
Then pardon me, it ain't my fault
My back was up against the wall
Thanks to y'all
You need to say it to my face
If you got somethin' to say 'bout me
'Cause that's the way it's supposed to be
But you ain't no G
Cuz, you  ain't like me
Too much of anythin' makes you a addict
Wantin' contact with another man makes you a ***
Patience is virtue, don't make me hurt you
I came Full Circle, about-face reversal
Salute the general, make yourself presentable
Analytical, every move made political
Say it to my face and wake up in a hospital
Huh, gutter never takin' me under  nerve of you motherf

Thinkin' I was slippin', I was servin' you motherf
X went off the deep end, I'm determined, you motherf
So watch how you speakin'
'Cause I'm listenin' closely for any  approachin' me
See when the drama pop off
Then pardon me, it ain't my fault
My back was up against the wall
Thanks to y'all
You need to say it to my face
If you got somethin' to say 'bout me
'Cause that's the way it's supposed to be
But you ain't no G
Cuz, you  ain't like me
You better come with the Taliban
Never been a slave or afraid of another man
X move like the brute force of an avalanche
It ain't my fault you smoked off your chance
See, motherf envy what they cannot be
Mr. X to the Z, H.N.I.C.
Half assed  gon'  on me
If they sentence me to five, I'll be out in three
You be deep in the dirt for the bugs to eat
Tucked in for eternity, time to sleep
'Til that day, I'll crush everythin' in my way
And give a  about what y'all say
Then pardon me, it ain't my fault
My back was up against the wall
Thanks to y'all
You need to say it to my face
If you got somethin' to say 'bout me
'Cause that's the way it's supposed to be
But you ain't no G
Cuz, you  ain't like me
