White Light

Adam Ladell

We shall sit and wait for a sign
That'll show us how we'll live our lives from now
Breathing your last breath again
With your eyes shut and lost to this world

Shall I ever feel your lips again
The subtle pressure weighing down my heart once more
Hanging onto a thread
With any gentle breeze you'll fall and I'll lose you again
Good night

Just lie there breathlessly
You don't have to say a word
If you don't want to

So goodnight, sleep as long as you want
But please in the end do wake up
Don't stay asleep forever
White light, lying hopefully
Dreaming about what is out there
Waiting for you to come back to life

Time shall move on once again
And we shall live this time without you oh no

So sleep all on your own
Watching as the world goes by you don't go

Just lie there breathlessly
You don't have to say a word
If you don't want to

So goodnight, sleep as long as you want
But please in the end do wake up
Don't stay asleep forever
White light, lying hopefully
Dreaming about what is out there
Waiting for you to come back to life

So goodnight, sleep as long as you want

But please in the end do wake up
Don't stay asleep forever
White light, lying hopefully
Dreaming about what is out there
Waiting for you to come back to life

So goodnight sleep as long as you want
But please in the end do wake up
Don't stay asleep forever
White light, lying hopefully
Dreaming about what is out there
Waiting for you to come back, you to come back, you to come back, you to come back
You to, you to, you to, you to
You, you, you, you, you, you, you, you
You to come back to life
