Destiny

John Berry

Up any mountain, 'cross any river
Through any danger, your love will deliver me
Everybody needs a reason for living
That's what you've given meIt's a solemn oath I take Nothin' will stand in my wayYou are the one I've waited for
The love I need so desperately
I'm standin' here at heaven's door
You are my destinyFor every question there is an answer
A destination only your heart can see
I just kept praying for love everlasting
That's when you came to meIt's bigger then the two of us
I'll never give you upYou are the one I've waited for
The love I need so desperately
I'm standin' here at heaven's door
You are my destiny, you are my destinyIt's a solemn oath I take
Nothin' will stand in my wayYou are the one I've waited for
The love I need so desperately
I'm standin' here at heaven's door
You are my destinyYou are the one I've waited for
The love I need so desperately
I'm standin' here at heaven's door
You are my destiny, you are my destinyUp any mountain, 'cross any river
Through any danger, your love will deliver me, oh
