Blimps Go 90

Guided by Voices

Blimps go 90 on with the show
Couldn't you see that?
Now didn't you know?
Aerosol halos, films of the flag
Rifle games for seven-year-olds
What a drag, yeah now that's a dragThis is not a vacation
There is no place to go
Weep, sad freaks of the nation
Where blimps go 90
And you can't find meSenator sipping on Gentleman Jack
"Oh boy", they told me, "Now don't you look back"
But don't you worry, I promise to not
I'll join your Canary Court
Fit into the slot, say now what have you got?Oftentimes I'm reminded
Of the sweet young days
When I poured punch for the franchise
And thus was knighted, got so excitedBlimps go 90 on with the show
Couldn't you see that?
Now didn't you know?
Hey now didn't you know?
