Christians Never Say Goodbye

Nelons

I was standing by the bed side
Of a dear and precious saint
With tear stained eyes I held his hand
His life was growing faint
He looked at me and said; "my child
Why do you look so sad?
I'm going now to my new home you'll see me again

Chorus:
Christians never say goodbye
We only move to our home on high
Free from pain and never die
With Jesus we will reign
A wife may lose her husband
Or a mother lose her child
Whatever the case we all can say
Christians never say goodbye

Now he's gone to live in heaven
A life free from pain
His suffering now has ended
Our loss will be their gain
By Jesus rights he is healed his pain
Will be no more let's release the precious saint
To the arms of the Lord

Lyrics Submitted by Graham AL

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/