

The Phoenix Cry

Lyria

Sometimes
I feel I am lost in time
Too much pain, so many lies
Violence is increasing, values are missing
People are drowned in slimeFrom time to time
I am probably lost in my mind
A place to live is what I'm trying to find
Where purity exists and I don't have to hide
I am waiting for paradiseLook at the phoenix in the sky
It knows it is the last flight
Nobody wants to keep it alive
When they hear the phoenix cryAll the time
I feel I am losing my life
Too much sickness, so much crime
Fear rules, Life is cruel
People seem so blindIt's a hard duty, when people are guilty
And nobody knows what is right
The Phoenix is overloaded
Cause it tried to heal the worldThis time
I feel I'm losing this fight
I was trying to change them
But time is running out
It's time to sacrifice
Time to say goodbye
