Be My Fantasy

Jean B. Gerbier

Be my fantasy

If I knew how you loved me, I wouldn't turn my back on you. Thank you for caring about me, for my entire days of loneliness. Today that you are mine, I am happier than ever.

Chorus
You must be my fantasy, when my days are lonely.
You must be my fantasy; I dedicate my love commitment to you and me.
You must be my fantasy, Thank you for this wonderful world of fantasy.

No more time of despair, this sentimental feeling of yours, is all that I need, to escape loneliness. I just discovered a better way of living, without dreaming of another.
