Casting Forward

Lazarus A.D.

Take it all away from me
Stack the hatred carefully
Questioning the time you spent
Burning traces of what's left
Moving to that final step
We all will meet our makerCasting forward regretfully
Shed my doubt and set me freeRetribution for the unaffected mind
Revocation is all I want to find
Memories will live once more
What lies beyond that lucid door
Evidence worth dying for
You gotta bury all that angerCasting forward regretfully
Shed my doubt and set me free
Casting forward regretfully
Shed my doubt and set me freeBlinded by broken hopes and dreams
Consciousness is never what it seems
Reunite with tragedy
Condemn the doubt forever free
Talking all the life from me
Its time to meet my makerCasting forward regretfully
Shed my doubt and set me free
Casting forward regretfully
Shed my doubt and set me freeCasting forward regretfully
Shed my doubt and set me free
Yeah, I'm casting forward regretfully
Shed my doubt and set me free
