Operate (feat. Royal)

Kill Paris

I got it in the worse way,
Got me trapped in your love cage.
Listen, listen your eyes don't glisten, glisten like the used to.
And this ain't something that I'm used to, no.I got it in the worse way,
You and me we always skip the foreplay.
Listen, listen this love ain't written, written in stone, no.
I can't be doing this to myself anymore, no.I know the way you operate,
It's much easier than falling again.
I know you won't cooperate,
But I know far too much to buckle now.
But I know far too much to buckle now.I can't stop it,
running out of options,
feels like my confidence is far behind
You do it how you want it, when nobody is watching.
I can see all the signs.
I'd rather go blind,
I'd rather go blind, yeah,
Yeah I would!I know the way you operate,
It's much easier than falling again.
I know you won't cooperate,
But I know far too much to buckle now.I know the way you operate,
It's much easier than falling again.
I know you won't cooperate,
But I know far too much to buckle now.
