

Valentine

Delays

I can see a hurricane tonight
It keeps me from my valentine
This voodoo's doing me harm
Woo (woo), woo (woo), racing along But maybe this is the moment to pray, dear
But I'd rather lay by your side
'Cause millions are fighting their way here Tell me...when did the water surround me?
And tell me...is that love in your eyes? New Orleans will tremble tonight
With bleeding hearts and swaying lights
A very modern machine
Woo (woo), woo (woo), it's coming for me Yeah, maybe this is the moment to say, dear
That I thought I'd have you by now
But sentiment got in the way, dear Tell me...when did the water surround me?
And tell me...is that love in your eyes?
And tell me...when did the water surround me?
And tell me...is that, is that love? I can see a hurricane tonight
It keeps me from my valentine
A very modern machine
Woo (woo), woo (woo), it's coming for me And tell me...when did the water surround me?
And tell me...is that love in your eyes?
And tell me...our last night on Earth is for living
And tell me...is that, is that love? (Woo-ooo-ooo-ooo-ooo-ooo) Just tell me the truth, it makes me feel better
The love in your eyes, it makes me feel better
Just tell me the truth, it makes me feel better
The love in your eyes, it makes me feel better (Woo-ooo-ooo-ooo-ooo-ooo)
