Hit The Skids Or: How I Learned To Stop Worrying A

Local H

Say what you want to say to me
I don't know who you know
But that'll change eventuallyI wanna know who you know
Wanna see what you say and have a field day today
Don't need a reason
Wanna go where you go
Wanna see what you say and have a field day today
I wanna go
I'm all alone
Once you've been for a skid
I'm all alone
Doing everything you did
No one cares and no one calls
But the party in the bathroom stall
Everyone is telling jokes that I don't get at all
I'm all aloneHey, whatcha wanna pay for me?
I'm in love with rock'n'roll
But that'll change eventuallyI wanna know who you know
Wanna see what you say and have a field day today
Don't need a reason
Wanna go where you go
Wanna see what you say and have a field day today
I wanna go
I'm all alone
Once you've been for a skid
I'm all alone
Doing everything you did
No one cares and no one calls
But the party in the bathroom stall
No one's gonna call a number written on the wall
I'm all aloneNo one cares and no one calls
But the party in the bathroom stall
No one's gonna call a number written on the wall
I'm all alone
