Good Mistake

Mr. Little Jeans

Blood on your hands
And your hands still roam
But your secret is safe with the garden gnome
Those marks on your neck never seem to fade
Bring a marching band
For the masquerade
Oh lonely man
You know you can
A pocket knife
Will serve you well
Remember what you're good for
There's much more to lifeUnder the sun
It's not what they can see
Until it's done
Your secret's safe with meBlow out the candles on your cake
It's another year due with the same mistakes
Blind like a bat
When you hit that wall
Now who's gonna come
Who you gonna call
Oh lonely man
You know you can
A pocket knife
Will serve you well
Remember what you're good for
There's much more to lifeUnder the sun
It's not what they can see
Until it's done
Your secret's safe with meI can see you run
I can see you're undone
Shadow to the sun
Shadow to the sun
See a rule to break
See another rule to make
It's a good mistake
Shadow next to noneBroken bones in a walking man
It's a trick to the eye
It's a rubber band
Don't let it go

Let it fall a part
It's a heavy load
For a tender heart
