

In My Liar's Grave

Andy Gray & Gary Numan

Echoes of life I'm losing
Is it over?
Is it over?
Echoes of things I believed in
So mistaken
So mistaken
For so long
Echoes of words barely spoken
Lies a haunting in my liar's grave
Never was the man I longed for Never knew what to reach for
I never felt the things I stood for
I never saw the truth that you saw
I never saved the world from dying
I never stopped the child from crying
I never said the words I should have Never shed the tears I should have
