Postdoc Blues

John K. Samson

So your presentation went terrible.
All wrong dongle, sweat stains and stares.
Leave the TV on with the sound down low, in your underwear.Don't despair, you'll get it right tomorrow night in Thunder Bay, maybe.
Don't delay, your day is short, you can't afford to wait.I believe in you and your PowerPoints.
I know why you can't stay away.
Out on Highway One with a rental car and a lot to say.Don't despair, you'll get it right tomorrow night in Nipigon, maybe.
Don't delay, our day is short, we can't afford to wait.
