

Wanna Be Loved

Jill Scott

Don't, don't, don't, don't
 Don't, don't, don't, don't
 It's bad, know I mean? It's bad
 Sometimes  is bad, look
 Don't feel no pity for me
 'Cause I'm goin' through a couple things
 Life means change, that's the way it goes
 All my life I had a constant burning, a strong deep desire
 An aching ambiguous yearning, yearning, yearning
 For something better, for something bigger
 For something wider, for something higher
 And lots of regrets 'cause I ain't seem to found it yet
 I've been searchin' around the world
 Never knowin' what to expect
 I get sad sometimes, yes, I be mad sometimes
 'Cause I'm out here on the grind makin' mine
 And I still can't seem to find what I've been lookin' for Opened so many doors, for real, yo
 I just wanna be loved
 I just wanna be loved like everybody else does
 I just wanna be loved, I just wanna be loved
 I just wanna be loved like everybody else does
 I just wanna be loved, I just wanna be loved
 I just wanna be loved like everybody else does
 I just wanna be loved, I just wanna be loved
 I just wanna be loved like everybody else does
 I just wanna be loved, I just wanna be loved
 I just wanna be loved like everybody else does
 I just wanna be loved, I just wanna be loved
 I just wanna be loved like everybody else does
 I just wanna be loved, I just wanna be loved
 Sometimes it's so hard I guess, you know, you know
 What I'm talkin' about, what I'm talkin' about
 What I'm talking about, you know, you know

I just wanna be, just wanna be loved
