Res Cogitans, Res Extensa

OTUS

Carried away by our mental flow, believe to be controlled by ourselves, suppose we're an individual conscience despite being a whole of nonsense.

Wake up from your false waking state, return to remember yourself by focusing on your actions and not being the result of their effects

Mechanical acts,
hypnotized,
dozens of selves,
incoherent,
the many I,
unaware of yourself

Become aware of the many I, watch how one takes over on the whole

Slave of yourself,
chained by your will,
as above,
so below

Evolve again,
waking from sleep,
as above,
so below
