Bluebird

Ryan Bingham

My bluebird, my blue bird can fly as far as I can see
My bluebird has everything I need
My bluebird, my bluebird knows my deepest desires
My bluebird, my bluebird will catch me just before the fireI'm down on the river baby, but I'm stuck on the other side love
From a rope my heart is hanging, water rises on a lonely soulMy bluebird, my bluebird wing can fly above it all
My bluebird will help me stand and be strong
My bluebird, my bluebird will never beg upon a knee
My bluebird, my bluebird knows I need to believeI'm down on the river baby, but I'm stuck on the other side love
From a rope my heart is hanging, water rises on a lonely soul
And I'll take my chances breathing, ain't never gonna hold my breath
Because I know if I stay waiting, my lonely soul gonna bleed to deathMy bluebird, my bluebird knows my deepest desires
My bluebird, my bluebird will catch me just before the fireI'm down on the river baby, but I'm stuck on the other side love
From a rope my heart is hanging, water rises on a lonely soul
And I'll take my chances breathing, ain't never gonna hold my breath
Because I know if I stay waiting, my lonely soul gonna bleed to death
