Get Away

Sly Stone

Sly Stone, "Get Away"
You can get away from the guy who loves you
They'll break your heart in two
I can get away from the girl who feeds me
She don't need you like I need you
Oh Oh..
I would bet my pay for a year and a day
If I couldn't be wrong
About this melody written for you and me
And we might as well sing the song
Oh Oh..
(sax solo).
Oh Oh..
I would bet my pay for a year and a day
If I could be wrong
About this melody written for you and me
And we might as well sing the song
Keep singing that melody
