

Get Away

Sly Stone

Sly Stone, "Get Away"

You can get away from the guy who loves you

They'll break your heart in two

I can get away from the girl who feeds me

She don't need you like I need you

Oh Oh..

I would bet my pay for a year and a day

If I couldn't be wrong

About this melody written for you and me

And we might as well sing the song

Oh Oh..

(sax solo).

Oh Oh..

I would bet my pay for a year and a day

If I could be wrong

About this melody written for you and me

And we might as well sing the song

Keep singing that melody
