

When God Shows Up

11th Hour

For every heart, there is a promise
That were two or more are gathered in his name
That we would know, His tender presence
And we'd never be the same
How could the holy be, among us
And not leave us, changed When God shows up, tears fall down.
Feel His glory all around
Praise His name, praise Him even now
When God shows up,
Tears fall down For all the ones, who've come here thirsty
Drink your fill of living water and, be blessed
Each wounded soul, who's weak and weary
Come to Jesus find, your rest
Let your tears be the song, that words cannot express When God shows up, tears fall down.
Feel His glory all around
Praise His name, praise Him even now
When God shows up,
Tears fall down So let us lift our hallelujahs, fill the heavens with the sound
Let us honor Him with worship, for He is with us now When God shows up, tears fall down.
Feel His glory all around
When God shows up, tears fall down.
Feel his glory all around
Praise His name, praise Him even now
When God shows up,
Tears fall down O Praise His name, praise Him even now
When God shows up, tears, fall down
