Charge (feat. Anthony David)

Carmen Rodgers

Lookin at you, the world never knew
Bout me and you and how so comfortable
We laugh, we feel, our hearts concealed
Broke down to build this love so realI grant your wish. You blow a kiss.
Our hearts dismiss all the loving we missed
The truth, no lies. Our hearts recognize
The look in our eyes. I can't lie I can't deny itBeing here with you the world it feels so new Nothing to prove; and oh how natural
We talk, we kiss, moment of bliss
Hard to resist a touch like thisI took a charge and you blew my heart up
Knew it from the start, just didn't wanna give you up
My heart, my soul, this love so bold
Every little part of me feels chemistry
You blew my heart upSo warm like the sun, could it be that you're the one
From your charge I'm so high
My heart's open wide. Let's give it a tryJust you and me, no mystery
Are we meant to be for the whole world to see
The truth, no lies. No acting surprised
Look into my eyes. I'm so high I can't deny it
