

Tears

Rufio

I sit and hear you sleep I dont want to go. Your there beside me, but your so far away. I talk to you while your asleep. You cant hear a word, you can hear everything.

Tears are feeling we cant say, tears mean that you care. Tears are mixed emotions, tears are more than tears. The porring rain from my eyes means to much to keep inside. sit and watch you leave my life forever. I know you'll be gone, my last words are nothing and I tell you I CARE and nothing more. I cant say how I feel, so I cry.

It's the light behind the shadow. The sacred face behind the mask

Tears are feeling we cant say, tears mean that you care. Tears are mixed emotions, tears are more than tears.
