Master And Slave

Kiss

Life, a movie in my head
A page of lines we read
The words remain unsaid

Time, a race you never win
Look back at where we've been
And throw the towel in

[Chorus]
Every time I see a sign
Tell me what's the bottom line
Tell Me
I just want to take my turn
Now before I crash and burn
Yeah

Hope, a candle burning bright
A temporary light
'Till we return tonight

Love, the mighty drug we crave
The master and the slave
Will rule us to our grave

Every time I see a sign
Tell me what's the bottom line
Tell Me
I just want a place to rest,
Count to four and catch my breath
One, two, three, four

I don't know what to feel
Don't know what to say
Don't know what to do

I don't know where to go
Don't know who to be
Don't know who to know

Life is never what it seems

It shakes you from your dreams
Wake up and start to
Every time I see a sign
Tell me what's the bottom line
Tell Me
I just want a place to rest
Stop and let me catch my breath

Every time I see a sign
Tell me what's the bottom line
Tell Me
Forget all that I've been told
I just want to lose control

Every time I see a sign
Tell me what's the bottom line
Tell Me
I just want to take my turn
Now before I crash and burn

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com
written by CUOMO, CURTIS ANTHONY / STANLEY, PAUL / KULICK, BRUCE Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/