Graceland

Kashmir

I wish I lived in graceland but I only had one day a postcard from the main land is all I have todayforty thousand million and a rolls royce engine couldn't take me anywhereyes I tried with aspirin and a nice calm weekend but my heart has left me hereI wish I had that skin tan that you are born into they'd see me as a warm man just like they're seeing youforty thousand million...I drown in my drool over all the goodies that they get I drown in a pool in a pool of my own sweatforty thousand million...
