

End of the Road

Sentenced

Here we are, now lay the burden down
We're coming to the end of our road
Sorrowful yet glorious somehow

To be humming this one last odeSo calm and still... it wasn't all that bad, or was it now?
Fulfilled... it doesn't only hurt to end it nowThe funeralThe memories beneath the dust of years

They seem like those of someone deceased

There's no more to be done, or hoped or feared

Just waiting for the final releaseSo calm and thrilled... it wasn't all that bad, or was it now?

Still, it doesn't only hurt to end it nowIs life over, this life's over?

Or has it only just begun?

It grows colder, starts to moulder...

Coming apart yet still not doneForever one
