

Not the Only One

The GC5

I've seen the opposition
I've seen what they call clout
I've seen some days when I should have just stayed down for the count
I choose my battles, I fought 'til I was done
I used to do it alone but now I'm not the only one
I've been in trouble so many time before
I've took on all the shit 'til I couldn't take no more
I bear my burden, alone it weighs a ton
I used to go it alone but now I'm not the only one
