

It's Heaven

Islands

Well, well, well, oh, hell
Look where I dwell
No one knows who rings the bell
It gets harder as our mouths water
Overheard company
We love misery
A turned off machine
It's never been much use to me
I come to, I rose again
But it feels off, like the wheel's off
Well, well, well, oh, hell
Look where I dwell
There [?], it warms me
To please me, just leave me
I love it here on islands
The cold heart and warm hands
It's heaven
It's heaven
It's heaven
Won't go back, won't go back
Won't go back again
It's heaven
It's heaven
It's heaven
It's heaven
It's heaven
