

Already Gone

Puddle of Mudd

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I wanna ride through the trails
I'm gonna run with the horses
I'm gotta change with the season
I wanna live for a reason I wanna sing for the people
I gonna hide from the needle
I'm gonna run from addiction
I' gonna dance with the devil yeah I'm already gone
Won't you play a along
With all my stupid fucking games?
I'm already gone, I'm already gone You're always playing the victim
You really know you're addicted
Don't wanna live in a prison
I'm gonna sink in the ocean I'm gonna run from the system
I watch the sun burn their vision
I'm gonna fly with the angels
I'm gonna dance with the devil yeah Well I'm already gone
Won't you play along
With all my stupid fucking games?
I'm already gone, I'm already gone
I'm already gone, I'm already gone You take away everything
You never given back to me
Just take away everything
You never give it back to me I gotta kill the addiction
I gotta kill the addiction
I gotta kill the addiction
Come on Now I'm already gone
Won't you play along
With all my stupid fucking games
Well I'm already gone, I'm already gone
I'm already gone, I'm already gone I gotta kill the addiction
I gotta kill the addiction
