Bicycle Hotel

Son Volt

Stuck in a hotel in Amsterdam
It's about sundown for you
Your sleep doesn't happen easy
Choice words for the pay phone that doesn't workYou buy up some cocaine and heroin
But you can't call home
Find sleep where you can
Situations to laugh about when it's over
It's a long way from overThinking of you around the world
Thinking of you around the world
Thinking of you around the world
Thinking of you around the worldHold up in the city of Hamburg
Looking for signs of Liverpool
Turn around an' we will bowWork in Dublin, run together, caffeine fueled dreams
Scottish ladies on the parade
Walk along the [Incomprehensible], the familiar empty streets
I know who you are, used to know who you areThinking of you around the world
Thinking of you around the world
Thinking of you around the world
Thinking of you around the worldThinking of you around the world
Thinking of you around the world
Thinking of you around the world
Thinking of you around the world
