For Shadows (Throwing Myself Album Version)

Luti-Kriss

So let this begin
It has been so long
Take my hand
I am finally moving onI see a controversy
And the world, looking at meEighteen years
I'm done with chairs
It has been so long
I am finally moving onI see a controversy
And the world, looking at meI see a stage of fire
I see people touched
A cross, it stands before
I see your loveBeggar
I see the world is watching
Send the nationsI'm beggar
Take my hand, take my life
