

Same Man

Till West & DJ Delicious

(Verse)

Everything's hard to break

You can bet

That it's gonna be mine

And if then our tears still fall

You can bet

There's a man behind them all(Pre-Chorus)

'Cause I keep on doing the same damn things

I'm loving the same, expecting different endings

But it's like you never learned until it starts to burn(Chorus)

The same face, a different day

Same hurt, I'm ready to break

Can't get to a new place

'Cause I keep loving the same man

I try to stay away

Hope that you don't find me

The past is repeating

But I'm loving the same manOh... loving the same man... yea(Verse)

If things are bad to pack

You can bet

That it's gonna be mine

And just when I'm on my way out

You can bet

That I'm gonna turn around(Pre-Chorus)

'Cause I keep on doing the same damn things

I'm loving the same, expecting different endings

But it's like you never learned until it starts to burn(Chorus)

The same face, a different day

Same hurt, I'm ready to break

Can't get to a new place

'Cause I keep loving the same man

I try to stay away

Hope that you don't find me

The past is repeating

But I'm loving the same man(Bridge)

It's always like when I get there

Although good ones are somewhere else

And I'm always left when it's gone wrong

I know this ain't where I've been wrong

I thought I'd think of so much more
But I keep repeating
'Cause I'm loving the same man(Chorus)
The same face, a different day
Same hurt, I'm ready to break
(He was crazy, he was lazy)
Can't get to a new place
(Don't know how to treat a lady)
'Cause I keep dating the same damn fools
I try to stay away
(But I tried everything, God knows I tried yea)
Hope that you don't find me
The past is repeating
I'm loving the same manI keep loving... loving the same man
