

Summer Air

Minority 905

Verse 1:

Today is the first day
I'm thinking about the memories and
All the plans I've made
To see familiar faces
And live life like the fearless
I'm sick and tired of looking out from here

And getting locked inside
All the restless nights
With burnt out minds
But not tonight

Chorus:

It's going down in this town
I'm dreaming of what's out there
I left my heart on these roads
Nothing feels like home
Time slows down and I feel alive
Breathing in, this summer air

Verse 2:

For the first time in months
I finally feel like I belong and
The pessimist is gone
I can finally see the light
And all my shadows are far behind

In the dawn of night
All the city lights
They feel just right
I'll be home tonight

[Chorus]

Bridge:

I think about the future all the time
Everything is changing in front of my eyes
But I hope this part

Of us will never die

[Chorus]
