

Where Do Old Lovers Go?

Benji Hughes

We were in love.
In love as they come.
If anybody ever asked me,
 I'd have to say,
 you were the one.
 The one,
 the only one,
 who can claim that.
 It's so hard to say,
Why it didn't work out with you and me,
 we just had to go our own way.
 Every now and then,
 Every now and then,
 I wonder where you are,
 and wherever you are,
 I hope you're in love.

Where do old lovers go,
 When they go away?
Where do old lovers go,
 When they go away?

 There was this way,
 This way that you had,
You could make the grocery store a party,
 You could make a funeral rave.
 Where are you now?
 How long is your hair?
 Do you still get your kicks,
 doing magic tricks?
Do you still think one day you're gonna have a couple kids?
 Wherever you are,
 I hope you're in love.

Where do old lovers go,
 When they go away?
Where do old lovers go,
 When they go away?
Where do old lovers go,

When they go away?
Where do old lovers go,
When they go away?

Where do old lovers go,
When they go away?
Where do old lovers go,
When they go away?

Lovers will come and go,
but love is here to stay.
Lovers will come and go,
but love is here to stay.
Lovers will come and go,
but love is here to stay.
