Shelley

Dance Hall Crashers

Why are you listening to all the things they tell you everyday?
Why are you listening, what happened to your own mind anyway?
Why are you listening to their advice on what to watch and do?
Why are you listening, has your mind been overrun, what do I do?I don't know how they pulled you fast and buried all the trace of the past
I don't know how you left so fast, I really hope that this won't lastOh Shelley oh, oh Shelley oh, oh Shelley
Oh Shelley listen to meWhat are you doing? It's been too long, I never even see you
What are you doing? You're a different girl but I don't know who
What are you doing? Fall asleep and disappear for days
What are you doing? Come back flying in a total hazeI don't know how they pulled you fast and buried all the trace of the past
I don't know how you left so fast, I really hope that this won't lastOh Shelley oh, oh Shelley oh, oh Shelley
Oh Shelley listen to meWhat are you thinking? I suspect you're losing it for good
What are you thinking? Promise I would save you if I could
What are you thinking? I probably don't even wanna know
What are you thinking? Please just say goodbye before you goOh Shelley oh, oh Shelley oh, oh Shelley
Oh Shelley listen to me
Shelley, Shelley, Shelley listen to me
Oh Shelley, Shelley, Shelley listen to me
Oh Shelley oh, oh Shelley oh, oh Shelley
Oh Shelley listen to me
