To the Darkness

Paradise Lost

So determined to enslave
A pain we've long disdained
Seem determined to embrace
We are all the sameSo conceal the night & day
Afraid of what's portrayed
Breathing deprivations wake
We're all inane
Until the dawn lifts
Only stare into the darknessThe days will blur
The darkest days, days will seem so clear
Announce your turn
Today we turn to the deceasedSo determined to explain
Those tortured steps invade
Your sole integrity betrayed
We're all the same
Until the dawn lifts
Only stare into the Darkness
Until the dawn lifts
Only stare into the Darkness
