

Battered Broken

Jude

Everything had to be exactly as you had planned it
Everything had to be exactly as you designed
The sadness inside you was lost on exactly no one
And there's nothing heroic or stoic in bein' a mime
Hey little girl is there room inside your world
For a groom without a pearl or a diamond on his mind
Did you think that for a second on the brink
That you could let me take a drink and bet
That would not climb inside over my primly pride?
Ooh, ooh See you walkin' down the hall kinda tall
It isn't all like be call and I'm gonna pucker up
And blow you, right out of the seams of your suits
And the dreams will be roots for the teams in cahoots
My demons loving you
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh There is only so much I can give without return
And maybe a song, maybe a few, maybe not
Maybe, finally fuck it and just take a shot
And I battered, broken barely hopin' remade token
I would crawl back to you and say thanks, I needed that
It's been a while
I would crawl back to you and say thanks, I needed that
It's been a while
Ooh, ooh Smoother skinned than most she was and beautiful
And just because I thought I'd be a dooms day gift
I placed the rift, I was callous first and cavalier droppin' verses
She could hear the sad refrain of inner pain
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh There is only so much I will give without return
And maybe a song, maybe a few, maybe not
Maybe, finally fuck it and just take a shot
And I battered, broken barely hopin' remade token
I would crawl back to you and say thanks, I needed that
It's been a while
I would crawl back to you and say thanks, I needed that
It's been a while
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh I'm gonna grope, I'm gonna grasp because I must It's my rope and my ass and my doom for my lusting of you
Throw me a thin spider line, I'll be fine
As I climb the mine to my divine
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh There is only so much I can give without return
And maybe a song, maybe a few, maybe not

Maybe, finally fuck it and just take a shot
And I battered, broken barely hopin' remade token
I would crawl back to you and say thanks, I needed that
It's been a while
I would crawl back to you and say thanks, I needed that
It's been a while I would crawl back to you and say thanks, I needed that
It's been a while
I battered, broken barely hopin' remade token
I would crawl back to you and say thanks, I needed that
It's been a while
