

Already Dead

Horse Thief

Its hard to think that you were hear just yesterday
And when you are gone I am bored from sucking in the air
You could be breathing
Today.

I dont think that I will see you
Unless there really is a God and heaven for us all.
I must be dreaming....
Today.

So raise your head
And tell me something.
That I'll believe in Theres really nothing
As when you're born you're already dead
It takes a soul to wake your head
and when you die you happily say
I'll be good, I'll be safe for the rest of our days
As when you're born you're already dead
It takes a soul to wake your head
and when you die you happily say
I'll be good, I'll be safe for the rest of our days
As when you're born you're already dead
It takes a soul to wake your head
and when you die you happily say
I'll be good, I'll be safe for the rest of our days
