Time For Love

Calee Reed

I dont want to fight anymore with my brother
I want every face that I see to be a friend
Im so tired of hustling and hurting each other
Why dont we all take part and start a new happiness trend?Why all the drama and noise? Its exhausting
Using our words to beat each other to death
Taking each chance to advance our own lives
At each others expense
Only looking out for number one
Im so over that mess(Chorus)
Its time, its time to find a new way to do what weve been doing
Its time, its time to make the best out of this mess that me and you call life
Its on us, so lets take a step back, relax and quit the fussin
Its time to forgive, its time to forget, most of all its time for love.Spread the word, have you heard theres a fresh new movement arising
Of those like you and me who see this crazy life as being truly blessed
We respect, we connect we reflect on how to do somebody some good
We rise above what we can and just forget the rest(Chorus)Its time its time
So lets spend a while smiling for no reason
Its time its time
Lets be a part of hope and finding something to believe in Lets build some trust
This worlds so broke, baby, its on us yeah
Lets forgive, oh lets forget
Come on its time for(Chorus)
