Everyone Gets A Star

Albert Hammond, Jr.

Won't you go back to where you go?
I want you to forever know
These guys have all got problems
These guys have all got their problemsToday, you've come, now go away
I know it gets so confusing
Sometimes it all seems to drag me down
Then when I'm getting closer
So close, everything just falls apartWhen will you stop and see me through
There's something else I'd rather do
Although you're getting angry
I know everyone gets a starToday, you've come, now go away
I know it gets so confusing
Sometimes it all seems to drag me down
Then when I'm getting closer
So close, everything just falls apart
