

Warrior//Worrier

Outlandish

Do whatever you love and you will be free
If you can't buy happiness try to lease
Or buy a better mirror stare a little longer now

One thousand reasons to cry out
Is that a life?
A thousand reasons to smile, I tell you why
Consolation to you tears I'ma light up your way

For what its worth
You're my warrior
And I'm your worrier

Do not be confused by the murderers
Goodness is bigger than us you can't see it cause
It is silent yeah but it's feeding this world

You are not depressed cause you fell out of love
Everything is a test maybe you
