Forget The Swan (live)

Dinosaur Jr.

It's floating through the abyss
Under the brig my head swings downBeware her wrath, the image gone
The shell is crumbling, fix my frownThis spell would be clear in non-tradition
And stepping on these pieces of pain and smirkAnd rape goes through to sin my eyes
And shapes know where the heartache will lurkForget the swan, a stone swims near
A stone has come, if I could cheer
Forget the swan
Forget the swanDrifting among this rubble
I guess the waiting, wished I wouldI found a box, untethered and true
Possession it understoodForget the swan, a stone swims near
A stone has come, if I could cheer
Forget the swan
Forget the swanHow I tried to warn my neighbor
But the corn was much too highIn confusion up and threw him, woke up every day
But it's not too late brother, I'll still say you were mineForget the swan, a stone swims near
A stone has come, if I could cheer
Forget the swan
Forget the swanForget the swan, the dreams are gone
The pain goes on, they fly at dawnForget the swan
Forget the swan
Forget the swan
Forget the swan
