The Gift That Keeps Giving

Super Furry Animals

A parcel arrived:
It was the gift that keeps giving.
I opened it up.
And all the bells started ringing.
Gonna take you right back,
Right back to the beginning
Of The gift that keeps giving again:
It's the Gift that keeps giving again.Well before I received,
This gift that keeps on giving.
I was always perceived as a loser,
That kept losing.
Well look at me now,
I'm a receiver that's receiving.
All these gifts that keeps giving again.
It's the gift that keeps giving again.Giving the gift that keeps giving again.
It's the gift that keeps giving again.Give it again, give it again, give it again.
Give it again, give it again.Giving the gifts that keeps giving again.
It's the gift that keeps giving again.
It's the gift that keeps giving.
Receivers keep receiving.
It's the gift that keeps giving again.
