

Age of Urges (More Machine Than Man Mix)

The Damage Manual

Can't move the age of urges
Indecent power surges
I can lose my sight, it ain't worth seeing you
Reversed in light, you seem to split in two
Beneath the age warped, innocent and left intact
The urge of age turn, reconcile, take it back
My eyes are cursed and darting
And the shots ring out the same
Ring the bell if you're hungry
You've started fighting for less
Fill a hole with your money
It's all second best
Break through the force of nature
Drape blinds on all your answers
You'll never fall unless we tell you to
Against the wall you seem to split in two
