

Oranges and Lemons

Book of Love

My heart is aching whenever I'm with you
You turned me inside out and I don't know what to do
A tempting treat is tearing me apart
The taste of fruit is melting my heart Now I'm yours forever, ate a pomegranate seed
I only took a little bite but that's all I need
I know that this is crazy and not very smart
But I like the way it feels to have a melting heart Spring is almost over at least that's what I'm told
The flowers and the leaves will die and we'll grow old
But I'll sit on a cushion and indulge in my dream
And feast upon strawberries sugar and cream Melt my heart, melt my heart
Melt my heart, melt my heart
