Runaway Love

Alice Gold

Come on let's runawayTake me to a restaurant to dine
I will wear a dress so divine
You'll find you can't tear your eyes away
Later on you can tear it off anyway...
Be my runaway love
Be my runaway love
Wanna runawaylove with you
I want to run run run awayDon't keep me waiting
Anticipating
For promises coming
The oil on the painting drying
Tears on my face will roll in the rain
And my heart will be aching againBut have you ever been to New York in May?
The loveliest month so they say
Up town and around Central Park
Until it gets too dark...
And then we can head to a show
There's a little hidden bar there I know
The band are playing tango til two
It takes two and I want to tango with you
