

California Dreaming

Hollywood Undead

Like a sinkhole
(Like a sinkhole)Stars are born then fucking made up and Undead slow
What does it show?(What does it show?)C-c-cut up all the tethers to your lost soul Think I'm 'bout to die on a dotted lineThen it's beef, cut throats on a short lieIt ain't a fucking crime, for taking back what's mineLos Angeles, we on a front lineClick-click-boom, let them fall Lining them up with a semi-matic autoHear the call, hear the call Hop in the whip to tip it straight then I'm out though
When I do it like this with a wiffle ball bat
Surf's up, bitches, and it's like that Hollywood coming to attackI'm no shooting star
Just a burning heart
We never sleep
In California, we're dreaming
Running through the dark
Broken boulevards
We never sleep
In California, we're dreaming
In California, we're dreamingI'mma get it now, Armageddon now
Coked out, skeletons, come back down
Break them down, gotta break them down
Broke down Ford lights, sing so loud
The greatest story ever told, the greatest mob ever known
Dead man walking, audition for the big show
It's biblical, social cynicalIn the land of make believe the situation's critical Sinking to the ocean lies some martyrs that are pinnacle Yeah, I'm just a vision but my wings are fucking literalAs above, so belowYou wanna go to heaven but you sold your soulDying young, I'm going coldCut yourself a bunch so you don't grow oldWe're living in denial but we're doing it in styleOut here in California, it's a trial by fireI'm no shooting star
Just a burning heart
We never sleep
In California, we're dreaming
Running through the dark
Broken boulevards
We never sleep
In California, we're dreaming
In California, we're dreamingIt's the future tension, hidden in the question
Underneath the dreams I hold
I can see rejection in my own reflection
I can feel my dreams grow cold(Dreams grow cold!)

(Oh!)I'm no shooting star
Just a burning heart
We never sleep
In California, we're dreaming
Running through the dark
Broken boulevards
We never sleep
In California, we're dreaming
In California, we're dreamingIn California
(In California, we're dreaming)
In California, we're dreaming
(In California, we're dreaming)
In California
