On My Way

O.A.R.

Don't fear the morning
It's okay, it's okay
Hurt weighs heavy
It's okay, it's okayWhen your body's
Cold and shaking
I'll steal you, darling
Steal youAnd when your body's
Old and aging
I'll heal you, darling
Heal youYour soul lights the day
I'm on my way, I'm on my way
When your soul filled with pain
I'm on my way, I'm on my way
Well maybe, baby, it's just meLook out the window
Past the pines, through the rain
Oh, skies will open
Let sun shine on your faceAnd when your mind is
Old and fading
I'll heal you, darling
Heal youYour soul lights the day
I'm on my way, I'm on my way
When your soul filled with pain
I'm on my way, I'm on my way
Maybe, baby, it's just
Maybe, baby it's justIn a matter of
In a matter of days we'll find love
Yeah, in a matter of
In a matter of days we'll find loveBut maybe, baby, that's just love
Maybe, baby, it's just meYour soul lights the day
I'm on my way, I'm on my way
When your soul filled with pain
I'm on my way, I'm on my way, ohAnd it's gonna get easier on you
And it's gonna get easier on you
And it's gonna get easier on you
Now it's got to get easier on your Soul, soul, soul, soulYour soul lights the way
Lights the way
I'm on my way
Well maybe, baby, it's just me
