

You Make the Whole World Cry

Tanita Tikaram

Young thing saw it
And calls his brother
And brother's angry
You make the whole world cry You can't tell me
I hid my secret
You can't own me
You make the whole world cry Young thing downing
And it maybe hurting
And it maybe the best day you ever had And I've gone courting
And I'm just chasing
But baby, you make the whole world cry
Yeah, you make the world cry
I tell you honestly
Yeah, I tell you honestly So we go dancing
And you start laughing
And I start choosing
A room to hide in But I'm not hiding
And I'm not running anymore You make the whole world cry
You make the whole world cry
You keep the whole world crying So it's so good
And it's so bad
And it's walk
To the end of, you're so sure of yourself Baby, you make the whole world cry
Yeah, you make the whole world cry
Yeah, you make the whole world cry
Yeah, you make the whole world cry Cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry
Cry, cry, cry, cry, cry
